$1 Million Goal Set for 71 Israel Bond Drive

JEWISH COMMUNITY DELEGATION WELCOMES NEW AMBASSADOR

Abe Palmer, President of the Ottawa Vaad Ha'Ir greets His Excellency Dr. Theodor Meron and Mrs. Meron on behalf of the Jewish Community of Ottawa. The delegation included leaders of the Jewish community and members of the Embassy staff in Ottawa. The group pictured with the newly-appointed Ambassador of Israel and his wife at the VIP Lounge at Uplands includes from left to right: Miss Esther Heber; Yosef Yaakov, Counsellor, Embassy of Israel; Mrs. Yaakov; Alex Betcherman, a Past President of the Ottawa Vaad Ha'Ir; Hyman Bessin, President, Federated Zionist Organization of Canada who accompanied the Merons from Montreal to Ottawa; Mr. Palmer; Dr. Meron; Mrs. Meron; Mrs. Shimoni; Emanuel Shimoni, Counsellor, Embassy of Israel; General L.F. Trudeau, representing the Governor General; Hy Hochberg, Executive Director, Ottawa Vaad Ha'Ir; and J.M. Cote, Chief of Protocol, Department of External Affairs.

The 1971 Ottawa Israel Bond Drive is in full swing with every effort being exerted to reach the record-breaking objective of $1 million. This goal for the 23rd anniversary year of Israel's statehood must be reached if Israel is to maintain her economic independence and reach new levels of strength and achievement.

Many Bond functions have already been held including the reception on September 10 for his Excellency Michael Comay, Ambassador of Israel to the Court of St. James. The drive culminates with the High Holiday appeals in all local Synagogues at a time when Jews throughout the world reflect on the past and look to the future with renewed promise and strength of purpose.

John Greenberg, General Chairman and Mrs. Max Zelikovitz, Chairman of the Women's Division who are serving for a second term point out that this Drive is part of a worldwide effort to finance the development of industry and agriculture, to construct new housing and to increase production for export to overcome Israel's unfavourable trade balance.

Mr. Greenberg adds that it is the responsibility not only of the Ottawa Jewish Community, but of the entire free world to come to the aid of Israel in its struggle to survive as a center of freedom and democratic progress in the embattled Middle East.

Mrs. Zelikovitz has called on the women of the community to provide their usual active and material support to ensure the success of the 1971 Bond Drive. She emphasizes the importance of women expressing their own commitments to Israel through Bond purchases. Mrs. Zelikovitz states that it is important to remember that we are talking about plus dollars, not the purchase that has been made by the husband.

Mr. Greenberg and Mrs. Zelikovitz wish to extend on behalf of the Ottawa Israel Bond Organization best wishes for a happy and healthy New Year.

John Greenberg

Mrs. Max Zelikovitz

PACE SETTER'S MEETING

The Honourable Mr. Justice Abraham H. Lief is seen addressing the Pace Setter's meeting, the season's first Bond function on July 29 in the Jewish Community Centre to officially launch the 1971 Drive.

High Holy Days Begin this Sunday at Sunset

Sunday evening at sunset, Jews the world over will usher in Rosh Hashanah and mark the inception of the Jewish New Year 5732 in a solemn and reverent manner. Rosh Hashanah begins the Ten Days of Penitence which culminate in the fasting and the religious services of Yom Kippur, the Day of Atonement.

This year, Rosh Hashanah begins at sundown on Sunday evening, September 19 and ends after sundown on Tuesday evening, September 21. The Hebrew calendar records the beginning of the Holy Day as the 1st of Tishre, 5732. Yom Kippur begins at sundown Tuesday, September 28 and ends after sundown on Wednesday, September 29.

Consult your synagogue bulletin for schedules of services and other details.

Bulka was presented with the Jerusalem Plaque at a Testimonial Reception tendered in his honour by the Synagogue in collaboration with Ottawa Israel Bonds. He was acclaimed for his dedicated services to his Synagogue and to the community in general. Rabbi Bulka's father, Rabbi Jacob Bulka of New York was an honoured guest. Making the presentation is Bond Vice-Chairman, Morton Taller. Also shown left to right are Jeffrey Copland, Co-Bond Chairman, Mrs. Reuven Bulka and Co-Bond Chairman Rudy Appotive of Machzikei Adas. Yosef Yaakov, Counsellor of the Embassy of Israel was the guest speaker. Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Appotive were the hosts at an advance parlour meeting in their home.

With them are Jacob Baker and Joel Dienna, Bond Chairman of Young Israel and chairman of the evening. Yosef Yaakov, Counsellor of the Embassy of Israel was the guest speaker.

New Year Greetings from the Ambassador

The past year has been one of relative quiet, but not one of peace. Although there has been little shooting, especially on the Suez Canal front, both the words and actions of our neighbours leave us with no illusions: the real peace toward which we strive is still not within our grasp.

In February, some thought that the Egyptians were finally prepared to make peace with Israel. The sincerity of this stance was, however, marred by Egypt's stipulation that Israel submit unconditionally, without any free negotiations. For us, Egypt's sincerity must be judged not in words, but in the conduct of negotiations. Yet the U.A.R. insists on dictating the terms and lines of settlement in advance. While withholding fire, the Arabs are still unwilling to talk with us.

During the lull on our borders, the Israel Defence Forces have not sat idly. The knowledge that a strong military is the best deterrent to war has caused our armed forces to invest in the finest equipment and to improve training methods. Our efforts are concentrated on obtaining the equipment needed for the Defence Forces and assuring its constant and regular flow. This need is even greater, in the face of Soviet shipments of sophisticated weapons systems to the U.A.R. We fervently seek peace, but should our neighbours start another war, we must and shall be prepared for it.

And so, throughout the year which is about to end, Israel has continued the work of building and strengthening herself, by absorbing immigration, developing the national economy, and assuring her defence.

Immigration is one of our most important goals, and the flow of

His Excellency Dr. Theodor Meron

Jews to Israel during the past year has given us cause for optimism with regard to "aliyah" in the future. Since last Rosh Hashana we have absorbed thousands of "olim" not only from lands where Jews continue to face persecution, but also from Europe, North and South America. Israel is not a rich country, and ours is not yet a peaceful and stable region, and yet, in spite of the absence of these two factors which traditionally draw immigration, Jews from all over the world have continued to settle in their ancient homeland.

Our economic development is closely related to our defensive posture, since only a country which is economically stable can be militarily and diplomatically strong. In spite of the crushing defence budget, we have continued to work to strengthen our economic power and to provide better housing and education for greater numbers of Israel's residents. Money has been invested in industry, especially export industries, and in other branches of our economy. Our exports have grown rapidly. To further develop our economy, we must, however, look to investments from outside, and here the role of Israel Bonds is and will continue to be essential, for we must have help in carrying out our development plans. Economic help and investments from abroad, especially Israel Bonds, enable us to bear the burden of defence without paralysing the process of development and progress towards economic independence.

While discussing economic progress, I would like to point out that we are happy to have seen the establishment of direct air communications between Israel and Canada during the past year. This link is doing much to foster trade and tourism between the two countries.

And what of the year to come? The Arab leaders speak of their willingness to lose a million men, in order to win the battle in the course of the coming year. They also speak of no concessions over the rights of the Palestinians. We know what these words mean! We know that the year to come will be a difficult one, a year filled with challenge. We, on our part, shall continue to strive for peace. We know, too, that in the battle for peace, the battle for a strong and prosperous Israel, we can count on our one never-faltering ally: Jewish communities outside Israel.

On the occasion of the High Holidays, I extend to the Jewish community of Canada the greetings of the people of Israel, and I pray that, in the coming year, we may know peace. Shana Tova.

FASHION SHOW BIG SUCCESS

There was glamour on the ramp, glamour on the dais and glamour in the audience when the 1971 Israel Fashion Show, sponsored by the Women's Division of the Ottawa Israel Bond Organization, was unveiled at a luncheon in the Community Centre on September 13.

Present were hundreds of style-conscious women who had purchased an Israel Bond for the privilege of attending. Mrs. Jack Fogel, Chairman of the Fashion Show and her committee were responsible for the success of the event. All local Jewish women's organizations participated.

Highlight of the day was the Fashion Kaleidoscope, a collection of the latest haute couture and ready-to-wear from Israel. The women sat enthralled as the parade of fashions passed before their eyes in an elegant montage narrated by Mary Kosalle, Freiman's Fashion Co-ordinator who staged and accessorized the show. A presentation was made to Mrs. Kosalle for her valuable assistance.

There was everything from evening gowns to furs, sportswear, swimsuits, street and at-home dresses and beach and patio wear, all serving to remind the audience how Israel has blossomed into one of the leading style centres in the world.

The main doorprizes were two free tickets from Montreal to Zurich by Swissair, where the winners will tour one of the world's most beautiful countries. On the flight between Canada and Switzerland, they will experience the courteous service, friendly hospitality and prize-winning cuisine of Swissair. There were also two attractive bonus door prizes. The Ottawa Israel Bond Organization appreciates the generosity of the donors.

A feature of the Fashion Show was the award to Mrs. Max Zelikovitz of the Tower of David Plaque, in recognition of her outstanding service during 1970 and 1971 as Chairman of the Women's Division.

Vaad Report

by Jacie Horwitz

Immediate Past President, Ottawa Vaad Ha'Ir

This column was written by Mr. Horwitz prior to the Annual Meeting of the Vaad and before he left for Toronto to become Chairman of the Commercial Registration Appeal Tribunal.

It is that time of parting and as your retiring president I would like to leave with you a few random thoughts.

The year has seen our community take some progressive steps forward in providing a pension plan for our loyal community staffs, in initiating changes in our archaic constitution so that there will be included on our executive board representatives from all organizations along with youth. We have initiated regular monthly executive meetings and periodic studies of our local institutions with a view to making recommendations in order to assist them both financially and administratively. We are planning to institute at the University of Carleton courses in Jewish studies. We have been in the forefront of endeavours to assist Israel and our unfortunate brethren in Russia.

Our community is an example of how ideally Jews can live and work together in harmony. Yet we cannot remain static, as we are a dynamic community and will continue to grow and I trust improve. Each of us must, however, to use an overworked phrase "become a participant". There are still too few workers in the community. Too many are prone to criticize but fail to assist personally. We need the assistance of each member of the community to continue to make it even better than it was heretofore.

I wish to take advantage of this last message as your president to particularly thank Mr. Hy Hochberg for his twenty-five years of devoted service to the Ottawa Jewish Community. If not for him, I doubt that we would have made such great strides in an atmosphere of quiet diplomacy. He has been a tower of strength to me and undoubtedly to preceding presiding officers. I am certain he will continue to work and give of himself in this his favourite vineyard.

I also wish to thank all the officers and staff members who served with me and voluntarily undertook the various tasks and duties assigned to them.

In my years of service in the various organizations in which I have been a member I have always striven to live up to my personal motto "leave it better than you found it". I do trust that this was the case in my stewardship of the Ottawa Vaad Ha'Ir. Shalom u'vracha.

CONSTRUCTION UNDER WAY AT HILLEL LODGE

Officers of the Ottawa Jewish Home for the Aged smile approvingly as the erection of steel begins on the third floor addition to Hillel Lodge. Although there was a slight delay due to the steel erector's strike, the work is now proceeding according to schedule. At this writing, all the steel is in place. The roof goes on next after which the third floor will be enclosed. The brick is already on the job site on Wurttemberg Street. Completion of the addition early in the new year will add another 19 beds to the present 30-bed facility. Shown with Reg Livingstone, superintendent of the general contractor, Admiral Engineering and Construction Limited are Dr. Joseph Greenblatt, President; Yale Greenberg, Executive Director; and Paul Weiner, Chairman of the Building Committee.

TEMPLE ISRAEL FINDS NEW HOME

When Rabbi David Powell begins the service on the Eve of Rosh Hashanah on Sunday, September 19, the members of Ottawa's Reform Jewish Congregation will be worshipping in their own Temple for the first time in their five year history.

Since its modest beginning in a living-room meeting, Temple Israel has made do with borrowed and rented premises, carrying their portable Ark of the Covenant with them. To meet their needs four separate premises were required; Friday services were at the Montefiore Club; High Holy Day Services at the El Mirador Hotel; a public school housed the religious school; and the Rabbi's study and Temple office was located on Merivale Road.

Thanks to a generous offer from the B'nai Jacob Congregation, its former synagogue building at 54 James Street now becomes the property of Temple Israel.

Newcomers to Ottawa, visitors to the city, the unaffiliated, all are invited to celebrate the High Holy Day Services with the members of Temple Israel in their new home on James Street. Call Mrs. Mavis Little at 722-8326, and let her know you would like to attend.

URO HEALTH CLAIMS

The United Restitution Organization (URO) advises its clients and other interested parties of a new ruling of the German Constitutional Court which provides for a possible pension for health damage to certain emigrants who left their country of origin after October 1, 1953.

The luncheon in their honour took place on July 2 at the Jewish Community Centre.

Vaad President Lauds his Predecessor in Office

Immediately after he assumed office at the Annual Meeting of the Vaad on June 28, Abe Palmer, the newly-elected president had this to say about the man who preceded him as the chief executive officer of the organization:

"In my first official act as president, it is my pleasant duty to pay tribute to our retiring president, Mr. Jacie Horwitz. Jacie has been a strong and dynamic president whose insistence on regular meetings has put the organization on a sound footing. He has been an excellent chairman — fair, impartial yet dedicated to the strengthening of Jewish community life.

"My only regret is that he leaves Ottawa shortly to take up his new position as Chairman of the Commercial Registration Appeal Tribunal, a four-year appointment, in the Department of Financial and Commercial Affairs of the Government of Ontario. We shall miss Jacie and his wise counsel and we shall miss Jean for her good humour and devoted Hadassah efforts.

On behalf of the Vaad, I wish them good health, long life, nachas from their children and every success in Toronto."

A Happy New Year To All

The officers, members and staff of the Ottawa Vaad Ha'Ir join me in extending best wishes to you and your families for a year of good health, happiness and prosperity.

Let us hope that the new year will bring peace to all mankind, security for the people of Israel and fulfilment of our objectives as a united community.

B'NAI JACOB ALUMNI BACKS BOND EFFORT

Since the inception of the Israel Bond Drive in Ottawa in 1953, the B'nai Jacob Synagogue has been in the forefront of support for that cause.

Following the recent amalgamation of B'nai Jacob with Beth Shalom, a group of former B'nai Jacob members met to discuss the possibility of continuing their association and aid to Israel, through the continuation of their annual Bond testimonial reception.

Accordingly, a Special Committee was formed with Alex Sherman, Chairman and Messrs. Ben Feinstein, Issie Flesher, William Grossman, Reuben Kalin, Mrs. Israel Glustein, Mrs. William Grossman and Mrs. Ben Sadovoy to review this proposal. They agreed unanimously that former B'nai Jacob members would be happy to be involved, not only from the standpoint of maintaining friendships which originated in B'nai Jacob but also as a service to the community and to Israel.

Mr. and Mrs. William Grossman were the hosts at an advance parlour meeting in their home on August 12 followed by a reception in the Jewish Community Centre on August 24. Yosef Yaakov, Counsellor of the Embassy of Israel was the guest speaker. Alex Sherman is shown addressing the group in the accompanying photograph.

AMBASSADOR OF ISRAEL ARRIVES

Chief Rabbis Call for More Participation in Bond Drive

In special High Holiday messages, Chief Rabbi Issar Yehuda Unterman and Chief Rabbi Yitzhak Nissim of Israel have urged American and Canadian Jews to intensify their efforts for Israel Bonds during the High Holidays.

Synagogues throughout North America devote an appropriate part of the High Holiday services to the furtherance of the Israel Bond program.

The Chief Rabbis of Israel emphasized the urgency of an unprecedented response to Israel's economic needs through Israel Bonds to expand and strengthen the economy to cope with increased immigration and as a bulwark in the struggle for peace.

In his message, Chief Rabbi Unterman expressed gratitude to those "who participate in the sacred work of re-building Zion and particularly to the helpers and workers of the Israel Bond Organization." He referred to the "inestimable importance" of economic development at this critical juncture in Israel's history, when Israel is receiving many new immigrants, for whom it must provide employment and housing. Through economic development, Israel Bonds are making "an important contribution to this holy and historic ingathering to Zion," he said.

Chief Rabbi Nissim, in his message, drew attention to "our relationship to the re-born State of Israel and to our people who dwell in Zion." Describing the influx of new immigrants as "divinely inspired," he indicated that while it is a blessing, it has placed "tremendous burdens" on Israel. "The Israel Bond Organization," he said, "which provides the means to develop and strengthen the economy of the State of Israel, is an important instrument in carrying out the design of Divine Providence." He added, "Were it not for the vital aid provided by the Israel Bond Organization, we could not stand before the weight of the problems which beset us."

The text of Chief Rabbi Unterman's message follows:

"From Jerusalem, the Holy City reunited, our fervent prayer to the Almighty goes out for a year of peace and happiness which will herald the redemption of our People for the 'Galuth'."

We send hearty greetings to our brethren everywhere and express our gratitude to those who participate in the sacred work of re-building Zion and particularly to the helpers and workers of the Israel Bond Organization.

"May you all be blessed with good health and great success in all your endeavours."

"The merit of fortifying our Holy Land through economic development is of inestimable importance as we stand surrounded by merciless enemies. At the same time our gates and hearts have opened wide to receive our dear brethren who are struggling to free themselves from the Arab countries as well as from the Soviet Union. The providing of employment and the building of dwellings with the aid of Israel Bond Investments are an important contribution to this holy and historic ingathering to Zion."

"I call upon you to lend hand and heart to this sacred work in order to speed the day of our redemption and witness the prophesy of Jeremiah: 'and Jacob shall again be quiet and at ease and none shall make him afraid.' " (Jeremiah 30:10).
